Three Easy Ways to Vote in Municipal Run-Off Elections

POLK COUNTY, FL (November 19, 2019) – Registered voters in the cities of Lakeland and Winter Haven who are planning to participate in the December 3rd Municipal Run-Off Elections have three easy ways to vote, according to Supervisor of Elections, Lori Edwards.

1. Vote by Mail - requests can be made by calling the Elections Office at 863-534-5888 or by visiting PolkElections.com. The last day voters can request a ballot to be mailed for this election is Friday, November 22nd. All mail ballots must be returned to the Supervisor of Elections by 7 pm on Election Day.
2. Vote at your Polling Location - polling locations will be open from 7 am until 7 pm on Municipal Run-Off Election Day, December 3rd.
3. Walk-In Voting - available November 25th through November 27th and December 2nd at the following locations:

Bartow	Election Headquarters	250 South Broadway Avenue
Winter Haven	Election Operations Center	70 Florida Citrus Boulevard

Walk-in Voting is open:

8:30 am until 4:00 pm, November 25th, 26th, 27th and December 2nd

(Office closed on Thursday, November 28th and Friday, November 29th in observance of the Thanksgiving Holiday)

For more information, visit PolkElections.com or call the Elections Office at 863-534-5888.
