

WINTER HAVEN PUBLIC SAFETY

Monday, February 1, at 1 PM ET

- Webinar: Ripple Effects of COVID-19 Related Identity Theft & Tips to Protect Yourself in 2021

Join experts from the Identity Theft Resource Center and the FTC for a discussion of identity theft during the pandemic — and steps you can take to protect your personal information. We'll explore topics including identity theft involving unemployment benefits, federal stimulus payments, Small Business Administration loans, and more. The webinar is free, but space is limited. Please register for the event. The webinar also will be available for later viewing.

Wednesday, February 3, all day

- The FTC and Identity Theft Resource Center partner for a LinkedIn Story “takeover”

The FTC will take over the Identity Theft Resource Center's (ITRC's) LinkedIn Story to offer tips on protecting yourself against identity theft. Visit the ITRC's LinkedIn page to learn about different types of identity theft, their warning signs, and how to recover if identity theft happens to you.

Thursday, February 4, at 2 PM ET

- Facebook Live: The FTC and AARP discuss identity theft
The AARP Fraud Watch Network talks with Shameka Walker, the FTC's Identity Theft Program Manager, about COVID-19-related identity theft, current trends, and how to protect yourself. Join the conversation on the AARP Fraud Watch Network Facebook Page.

Friday, February 5, available beginning 8 AM ET

- Podcast: The FTC and Identity Theft Resource Center talk about identity theft and COVID-19
Shameka Walker, the FTC's Identity Theft Program Manager, and ITRC leaders Eva Velasquez and James Lee, talk about current trends in identity theft, the impact of COVID-19-related identity theft, and tips to help keep your personal information safe on the ITRC podcast, The Fraudian Slip, available beginning 8 AM ET on February 5.